RE: CUBA

1. Khamatov (USSR) late last evening called McCloy and asked him drop by early this a.m. McCloy did so and was told by Khamatov that SOV GOVT greatly preferred short form direct letter.

2. Khamatov handed McCloy following draft:

BRIEF VERBATIM TEXT.

Dear Mr. Secretary General:

On behalf of the GOVTS of the Soviet Union and the United States of America we desire to express to you our appreciation for your efforts in rendering assistance to avert the serious threat to the peace which arose in the Caribbean area.

The USSR and USA GOVTS believe that in view of the understanding reached between them and of the progress in the settlement of the crisis in the Caribbean area there is no further need for this item to occupy the Security Council's attention at this time, though it has not been possible fully to resolve all of the problems that have arisen in connection with this crisis.

The USSR and USA GOVTS express the hope that the actions taken to END VERBATIM TEXT.

Dear Mr. Secretary General:

On behalf of the GOVTS of the Soviet Union and the United States of America we desire to express to you our appreciation for your efforts in assisting our GOVTS to avert the serious threat to the peace which recently arose in the Caribbean area.

While it has not been possible for our GOVTS fully to resolve all the problems that have arisen in connection with this affair, they believe that, in view of the considerable progress that has been made, it is no longer necessary for this item to occupy further the attention of the EC at this time.

The GOVTS of the Soviet Union and the United States of America express the hope that the actions taken [by them] to avert the threat of war in connection with this crisis will lead to further constructive efforts [by the United States of America and the Soviet Union to adjust] <sup>for the adjustment of</sup> differences
